A Guide to the Farms that Feed Ottawa's Farmers Markets

History

The Ottawa Farmers' Market opened in 2006 with 19 vendors at Lansdowne Park. With the support of the community, the market has grown to four locations, and more than 100 vendors of locally-grown produce, grass-fed beef, heritage pork, spring lamb, game, honey, maple syrup, eggs and grains and locally-made baking, chocolate, jams, preserves, arts and crafts.

About

The Ottawa Farmers' Market is a producer-run organization that features vendors within a 100KM radius from Ottawa. Providing an opportunity to buy the freshest, local products the season has to offer direct from the people who produce it. (Source: ottawafarmersmarket.ca/about)
